Drawings

1. Figure s 33-36 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-7 in the reply filed on 06/29/07 is acknowledged.

Notice, that Figs. 23-32 belongs to Species 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kim et al. (7,205,970).

As to claims 1,4 Kim teaches an image processing method (col. 1, lines 8-12) comprising the steps of:

combining a higher-luminance pixel to be driven at a higher luminance than luminance data of an image to be displayed and a lower-luminance pixel to be driven at lower luminance than the luminance data (figs. 7A-7B, items A-B, from col. 6, line 66 to col. 7, line 25); and determining a luminance on the higher-luminance pixel and luminance on the lower-luminance pixel and an area ratio of the higher-luminance pixel and the lower-luminance pixel so that a luminance can be obtained substantially equal to a desired luminance based on the luminance data (col. 7, lines 36-41).

As to claim 2, Kim teaches the combination of the higher-luminance pixel and the lower-luminance pixel changes frame by frame (col. 7, lines 7-19).

As to claims 3,5 Kim teaches an area (existence) ratio of the higher-luminance pixel and the lower-luminance pixel is from 1 : 1 to 1 : 20 (col. 7, lines 31-37).

As to claim 2, Kim teaches a liquid-crystal display device having a liquid crystal sealed between an array substrate and an opposite substrate that are oppositely arranged with a predetermined cell gap, the liquid-crystal display device characterized by having a drive circuit for realizing an image processing method (fig. 5, items 100,400, col. 23-31).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kim et al. in view of Koma (7,133,101 B2).

Kim does not disclose the liquid crystal has a negative dielectric anisotropy and is in a vertical alignment under no application of voltage.

Koma teaches the liquid crystal has a negative dielectric anisotropy and is in a vertical alignment under no application of voltage (col. 2, lines 24-35).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to incorporate Koma teachings into Kim et al. system in order to achieve a wider viewing angle (col. 3, lines 1-6).
